The competition is open to all violinists attending any primary music school, born after 1 June 2004.

The competition is announced in five categories as follows:

- Category I: born on 1 June 2008 and later
- Category II: born between 1 June 2007 – 31 May 2008
- Category III: born between 1 June 2006 – 31 May 2007
- Category IV: born between 1 June 2005 – 31 May 2006
- Category V: born between 1 June 2004 – 31 May 2005

Competitors can only apply for the category that is due to their date of birth.

The competition will take place in one round, from which the Jury will decide the winners.

The number of candidates are limited: Maximum 10 candidates per school and maximum 3 candidates per category are allowed. Maximum number of the contestants is 80.

The requirements of the competition:

- The competition programme must be played without score.
- When choosing the competition programme, the given time frame must be kept.
- Candidates are required to have with them original scores for all works and be prepared to show them in the competition office. The scores of the compulsory pieces on the Organiser's website only serve the better identification of the pieces.
- Candidates must register to the competition office by the stipulated date in the official invitation. Failure to do so would result in disqualification from the competition.
- The Festival cannot provide piano accompaniment for the competitors.

- The winners of the competition are required to be present at the gala concert which will be held on Saturday 9 March 2019 and if necessary play one or more pieces of the contest.

Repertoire:

For all participants in all category:

- one compulsory piece and
- two works of the competitor's own choice (that may be: performance piece / concert's 1st movement/ concert's 3rd movement / slow and fast movement of a sonata). A slow and a fast movement of the same piece are counted as one work.

The program must be played from memory in all categories.

Compulsory pieces and total duration:

Total duration time indicates the maximum duration of the whole performance, compulsory and chosen pieces together. Candidates must present a program which does not exceed the time limit.
